

Helplessness

By Venkata Raju

Beaten up daily by 'WhatsApp'

Caught in the web of 'Webex'

Confiscated by 'Conference Calls'

Doomed by zoom and moving as 'Zombies (ZoomBees) and boomerangs.

Phasing out in one's own "FaceBook"

Twisted and cluttered by

'Tweeters'

Losing smartness with

'smartphones',

Going down the tubes

In 'YouTubes',

Knocked down

by 'Instagrams',

Tamed by 'Teams',

Roped into 'Group Me',

Locked in by 'LinkedIn',

We've become helpless!

Are they really charging us?

Are they really changing us?

Are they giving us any energy?

Are we losing our innate energy?

Friend or Foe? Don't know!

Have we become their slaves?

Are they getting on our nerves?

Have we gone into their caves?

Are these new enemies or graves?

Friends,

We may be helpless,

We're not hopeless,

Wake up, without 'WhatsApp's'

Talk to colleagues without 'phones'

(Wear a mask, with social distance)

Read from the 'books', the antiques,

Think, without any 'google' checks.

Feel the nature,

Rule the future,

Save the outer world,

See your inner world!
