Welcome Back, Aggies!

The faculty and staff at the BLCC would like to welcome all Aggies back to campus. For both our returning Aggies and the new members of our Aggie family, we are very excited to have you here and wish you all a safe and successful semester.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- Mandatory COVID-19 testing for the entire Texas A&M University campus – regardless of vaccination status – has already begun and will continue through Friday, September 10th. For more information on where and when testing is available, visit <https://www.tamu.edu/coronavirus/testing-locations/index.html>.
- Up to date guidance for Texas A&M policies and procedures regarding COVID can be found at <https://www.tamu.edu/coronavirus/index.html>.
- While Texas A&M does not require vaccinations for COVID, all students, faculty and staff are encouraged to get vaccinated. Masks, both inside and outside, are also strongly encouraged and BLCC patrons will notice that “Masks Preferred” signs have been posted at the library entrance. We appreciate your ongoing compliance with this request.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES SERVICE UPDATES

- All buildings are fully open at 100% capacity
- Study rooms are available to be reserved
- The Libraries’ stacks are open for student use

BLCC USER SERVICES

We provide laptops, headphones, phone chargers, calculators, textbooks on reserve, and more for you to check out at the “AskUs Desk.”

WHAT'S NEW?

You may notice a few changes on the second floor here at BLCC. Over the summer we consolidated a couple of collections, allowing us to free up more space for study areas. In addition to rearranging the furniture, we added Agati pods to the new study space. We think they're super comfy. Try one out and let us know what you think!

The OAL will have slightly different operating hours for the first few weeks of the semester:

- Sunday: 12pm-12am
- Monday-Thursday: 7:30am-12am
- Friday: 7:30am-9pm
- Saturday: CLOSED
