

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY®

Belize: Experiencing Leadership

Hopkins and San Ignacio, Belize

May 11 - 25, 2020*

Interested in studying abroad?

Belize is a culturally diverse and mixed race country with one foot in Latin America and the other in the Caribbean. Students will be fully immersed in the culture through immersive learning activities that will highlight textbook material developmental theories into the diverse Belizean context. We will experience San Ignacio and the Mayan ruins, the University of Belize, an Archaeological Reserve, the Belize Zoo, a large Mennonite community, snorkeling, and many other Belizean activities related to leadership.

Courses (3 credit hours required):

- ALED 340: Survey of Leadership Theory (3 cr)
- ALED 440: Leading Change (3 cr)

and/or

- ALED 485: Directed Study (3 cr)
 -  Some coursework and meetings occur during spring semester.

Apply by October 1st @ studyabroad.tamu.edu