

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PLANNING TURBOMACHINERY OVERHAULS AND DOCUMENTING THE RESULTS	1
John D. Houghton, Manager, Mechanical Equipment, Shell Oil Company, Deer Park, Texas
ELECTROMAGNETIC SHAFT CURRENTS AND DEMAGNETIZATION ON ROTORS OF TURBINES AND COMPRESSORS	13
John S. Sohre, Consultant, Ware, Massachusetts; Paul I. Nippes, President, Nippes Professional Association, Woodbridge, New Jersey
THE STATE OF THE ART OF HIGH SPEED OVERHUNG CENTRIFUGAL COMPRESSORS FOR THE PROCESS INDUSTRY	35
Hans Pennink, Chief Engineer, Turbonetics Incorporated, Latham, New York
DESIGN AUTOMATION OF CENTRIFUGAL COMPRESSORS	47
Tadashi Kaneki, Engineer; Eiji Yokoyama, Assistant Chief Engineer; Tsuchiura Works, Hitachi, Ltd., Tsuchiura, Ibaraki, Japan
HIGH SPEED AND LARGE CAPACITY COMPRESSOR-DRIVING TURBINES FOR CHEMICAL PLANTS	59
Makoto Teramoto, Kazuso Katayama, Masanori Fujimuru, Hiroshima Shipyard and Engine Works, Mitsubishi International Corporation, Hiroshima, Japan
AN INVESTIGATION OF THE FLEXURAL VIBRATION BEHAVIOR OF SLENDER ROTORS IN DRUM-TYPE CONDENSING TURBINES	71
Rolf Sparmann, Head, Development Section, Industrial Turbine Division, Siemens AG, Wesel, West Germany
PRACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS FOR A RATED SPEED SHOP BALANCE	87
Edward A. Bulanowski, Jr., Chief Engineer, Solid Mechanics, Research and Advanced Product Development, Delaval Turbine Inc., Trenton, New Jersey
COMPRESSOR RESPONSE TO SYNCHRONOUS MOTOR STARTUP	95
Gerald K. Mruk, Analytical Engineer, Joy Manufacturing Company, Buffalo, New York
SUBSYNCHRONOUS VIBRATION IN A LARGE WATER FLOOD PUMP.....	103
James E. Corley, Supervisor, Rotating Equipment, Arabian American Oil Company, Dhahran, Saudi Arabia
TRANSIENT ANALYSES OF SYNCHRONOUS MOTOR TRAINS	111
Fred R. Szenasi, Senior Research Engineer; Walter W. von Nimitz, Director, Industrial Applications Department; Applied Physics Division, Southwest Research Institute, San Antonio, Texas
TURBOMACHINERY PROBLEMS — LUBE AND SEAL SYSTEM REVISITED	119
Royce N. Brown, Consulting Engineer, Dow Chemical U.S.A., Houston, Texas
PARTICULAR PROBLEMS OF STEAM TURBINE LUBRICATION	125
Walter E. Enz, Manager, Turbine Controls; Alfred Hausermann, Chief Turbine Design Engineer; BBC Brown, Boveri & Company, Ltd., Baden, Switzerland
THE ROLE OF HYDRAULIC BALANCE IN MECHANICAL PUMP SEALS	133
Gordon S. Buck, Jr., Engineer, MO's Engineered Repair Services, Denham Springs, Louisiana
USING MODIFIED ACOUSTIC EMISSION TECHNIQUES FOR MACHINERY CONDITION SURVEILLANCE	139
Heinz P. Bloch, Engineering Associate; Robert W. Finley, Systems Engineer; Exxon Chemical Company U.S.A., Baytown, Texas
IMPROVING COOLING TOWER FAN SYSTEM EFFICIENCIES	159
Robert C. Monroe, Manager, Research and Development, Hudson Products Corporation, Houston, Texas
THE OPERATING CHARACTERISTICS OF GEAR-TYPE COUPLINGS	167
Gerhardt Pahl, Professor and Engineer, Darmstadt Technical University, Darmstadt, West Germany

TUTORIUM ON TURBOMACHINERY LUBRICATION
PLANT LUBRICATION	177
Allen M. Clapp, Supervisor, Lubrication Technical Services, Dow Chemical U.S.A.,
Freeport, Texas
LUBRICATION SYSTEMS FOR TURBOMACHINERY.....	189
Fredrick B. Wilcox, Staff Engineer-Lubrication, Shell Oil Company,
Houston, Texas
DISCUSSION LEADERS	193
ADVISORY COMMITTEE.....	199
EXHIBITORS	203
GAS TURBINE LABORATORIES	209
GAS TURBINE LABORATORIES PERSONNEL	211
