

The Great Film Series Presents

Day for Night

A movie for people who love movies

A Film By Francois Truffaut

When: December 3

Time: 1:00 pm

Where: Student Center Cinema

The leading lady is recovering from a nervous breakdown, another performer is soused on the set, trade unions threaten to walk, shooting must somehow finish before the insurance lapses, and a cat needed in a scene can't hit its mark. Is this any way to make a movie? Truffaut's valentine to the movies is the greatest film ever made about making a movie. Based on incidents from Truffaut's own career, Day for Night is touching, humorous, full of memorable moments, contains an exhilarating score, and has an excellent and appealing ensemble cast, including Truffaut himself as the director.

For more information contact Dr. David Work, Texas A&M University, at dkeithwork@yahoo.com