Hi, Gwendolyn:

Many, many thanks for going to bat for me on this! I owe you big, as does Dr. Banaclocha.

Massachusetts has been beautiful with the changing leaves of fall, but we had a big rain and wind storm last night. The leaves all blew away, and now the landscape has turned brown and gray for the winter.

Thanks again, Kevin

Dr. Crisman,

Massachusetts, on sabbatical, writing a book...Sounds where I would love to be. I pled your case, based on your situation, and bureaucracy lost—you won. We will accept this email and that signature and call it done.

Happy writing and sorry for the intrusion,

Hi, Gwedolyn:

I'm up in Massachusetts right now, on a sabbatical, trying to get a book written. I do not have ready access to a printer/scanner. Can you mail one up to me right away?

All kidding aside, this is a big inconvenience. Are you sure that the department chair or the committee chair cannot sign this form for me?

Many thanks!

Best Wishes, Kevin Crisman

Dr. Crisman,

Our apologies for the inconvenience, but electronic signatures are not acceptable on Written Dissertation Approval Forms. If you could physically sign the attached form, scan it, and return it, we can get Mr. Banaclocha into the review process.

With gratitude for your time and effort,

Here's the approval form with my signature added.

In haste, Kevin

Dear Jose,

Thank you for submitting your Approval Form to OGAPS. For now we will accept your Approval Form with the Chair's signature in place of one of your Committee Members (Dr. Kevin Crisman), but remember that in order to clear you from our Office this semester you need to submit the Approval Form with the original signature of the missing committee member.

You can either have your committee member add his signature to a copy of the current form or sign on a new Approval Form (we can accept multiple Approval Forms if needed). The committee member's signature cannot be electronically generated, but can be scanned or emailed.

Please contact us if you have any questions.

P.S. I have attached a copy of your Approval Form for your convenience.

Best,

Sumac Elisa Cardenas Oleas
