The Afro Scholar Newsletter contains the most comprehensive list of published work on the Black experience, books and articles. The Afro Scholar Newsletter - now in its 5th year is published on a quarterly basis covering over a thousand journals, and hundreds of publishing companies. The Afro Scholar is a convenient cost effective reference tool. On all aspects of the Black experience it is indispensable for many critical uses: library acquisitions, keeping course readings up-to-date, and literature searches for student and faculty research.

We urge you to compare this with other reference tools. Also, we encourage you to ask faculty and students to evaluate the Afro Scholar Newsletter. Then, we encourage you to order your subscription today.

The Afro Scholar Newsletter is published by the Twenty-First Century Books and Publications in collaboration with the Cooperative Research Network in Black Studies. TCB Publications specializes in books on the Black experience including the Introduction to Afro-American Studies, and the Annual Theoretical Review of Afro-American Studies. The CRN is a network of research work groups who conduct research, hold conferences, and publish research results.
