

Languages in Qatar

What do you speak more? English or Arabic?

Where?

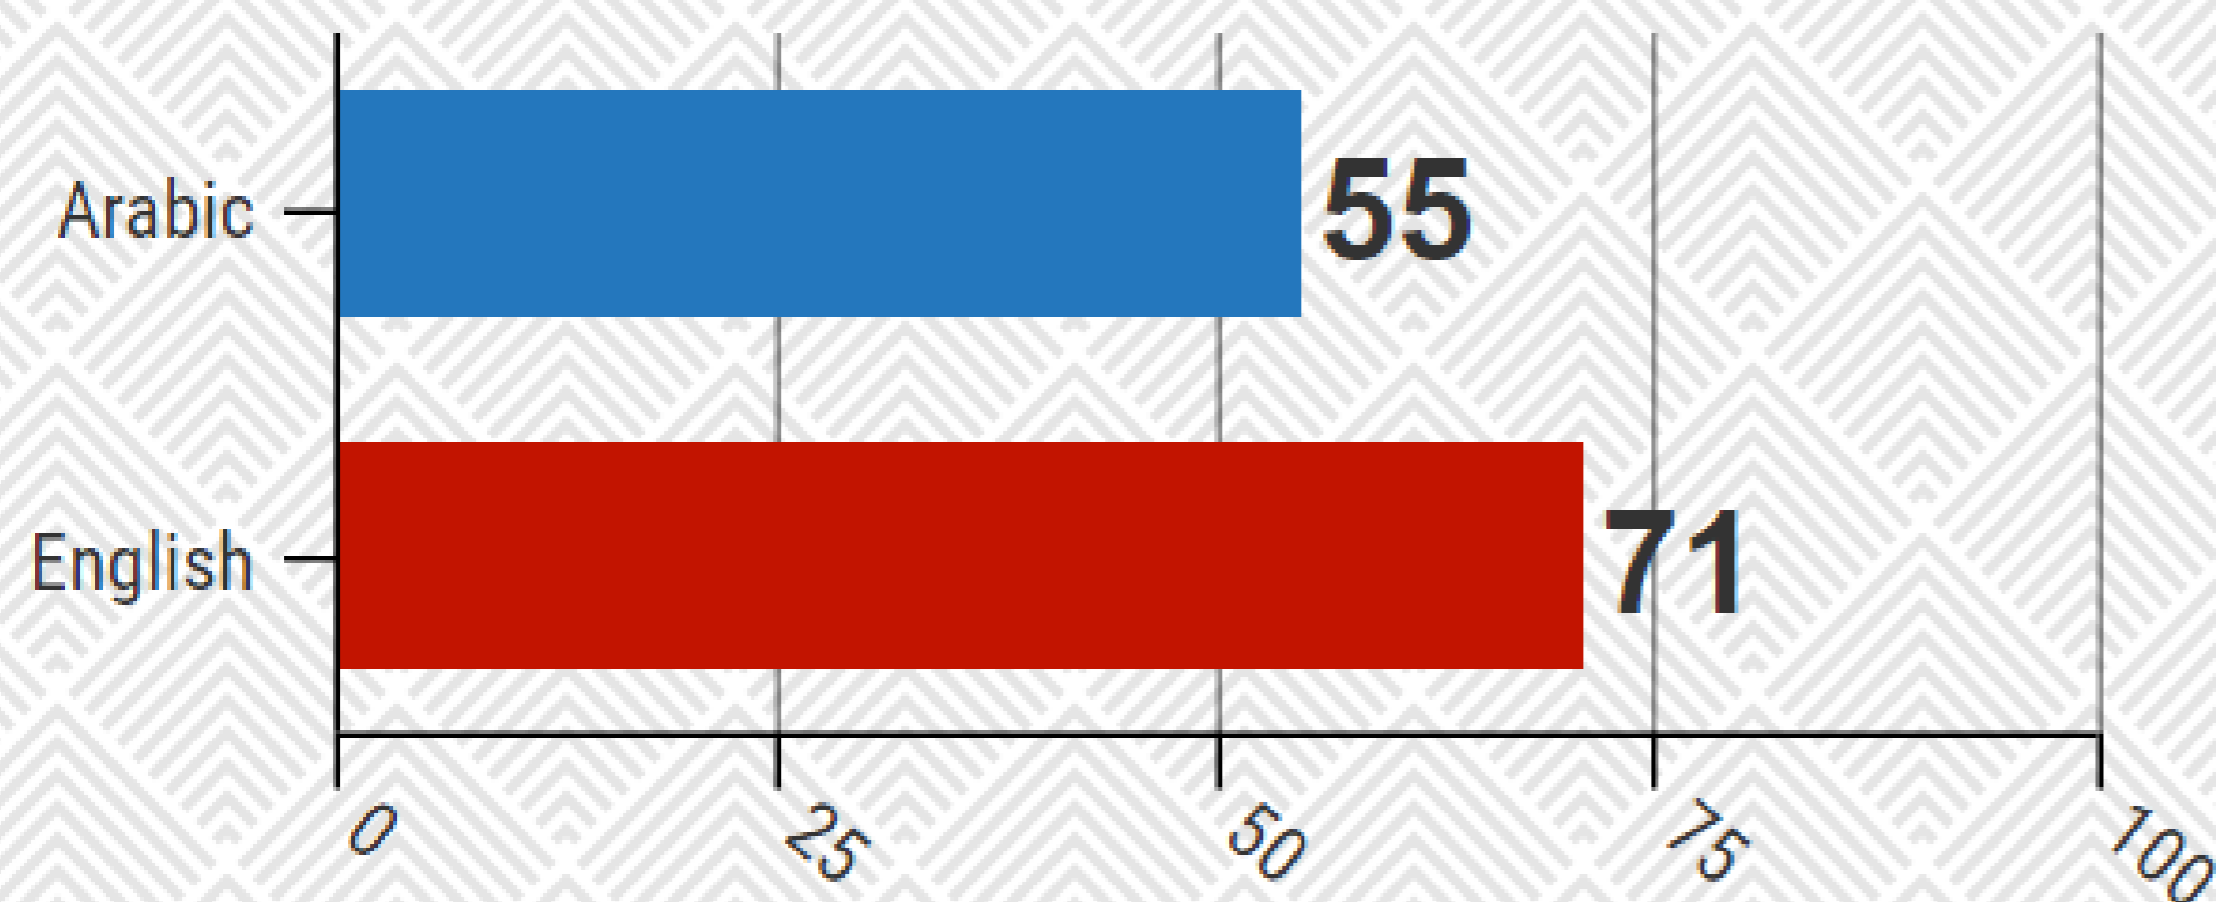

- People tend to speak Arabic at home significantly more than English, by about 7 times.
- In public, the results show that people use both Arabic and English language at the same rate.
- At school and work, most people use English more than Arabic by about 2 times.

Comparing the Skills...

On average, respondents see that they are more skillfull in English than in Arabic.

Skill scale from 0 to 100

Is it because of English?

About half of respondents believe that studying English has a negative impact on their Arabic skills

Overall use

The results show that people use Arabic and English at the same rate for their daily communication but with a small shift towards Arabic.

