

Love in the Time of Quarantine

By Sunny Lie

I love how my husband

Combines different food items

Into

An amazing array of tastes and textures

The other night for appetizer

He made

A Ritz cracker'wich

With reduced sodium Italian salami

Spinach kale yogurt dip

And sharp cheddar cheese

Another night

For dessert

He brought up in a bowl

Mom's homemade brownie

Fresh strawberries

Kettle corn

Dark chocolate pretzels

And to top it all off

Gummi bears

As we drift to sleep

In a comfortable cuddle

With our daughter

Who has taken up residence

In my ever-growing belly

I count myself lucky to have

Them as my quarantine partners
