BTHO Finals!

To every semester an end must come, bringing with it the stress of finals. Stress is...well, stressful. It's not fun. So we will bring the fun to you during finals. On May 3, 4, and 8, Pets with Purpose will be here from 6 PM to 8 PM with furry friends to scratch and snuggle. Games such as Sorry, Guess Who, Chutes and Ladders, and a deck of playing cards will be out for fun study breaks. You can release your inner child with crayons and coloring books. And there will be snacks!

We remember being students during finals and empathize with your struggle, so we hope you will take every opportunity to enjoy the fun things we've provided.
